*“The world is too much with us, late and soon,
Getting and spending, we lay waste our powers:
Little we see in Nature that is ours.”*

—William Wordsworth,
romantic poet and lifelong resident of England’s Lake District

Trust and Tradition Balanced with Nature

By Tom Gelsthorpe

That green and watery region in England’s north nurtured naturalists and poets in Wordsworth’s time. A century later, Beatrix Potter of the Peter Rabbit stories devoted much of her life and fortune to the National Trust to conserve the Lake District’s rural character. To this day the region provides a haven from the hurly-burly elsewhere on that busy island. Cape Cod plays a similar role for the American northeast. In this place, year-rounders marry the sea and sky, and visitors renew their spirits from a world “too much with them.”

New England nature writer Henry David Thoreau recognized the Cape's distinctive qualities in "Cape Cod," his second most famous book. Myriad Cape poets and naturalists have sung its praises for centuries, and still do.

It's the place named after the North Atlantic's most significant food fish. Cape Cod was among the first regions to be deforested by European settlers. Thoreau noted that the lower Cape was almost treeless by the 1850s. As recently as the 1950s, the upper Cape including Bourne, was a checkerboard of farms and fields resembling regions much farther west. Bourne has enjoyed the distinction of being the Cape town most deeply indented by salt creeks, small islands and meandering peninsulas, or "necks." Despite being bisected by the Cape Cod Canal in 1914 and spanned by bridges and highways between Cape Cod and the mainland, the Town of Bourne retains a pattern of separate, intimate villages. The Four Ponds area in Pocasset is so bucolic, you'd never guess it was once an industrial zone.

Each salt cove seems to host a family-owned boatyard. Sailors recreate all summer on famously reliable breezes. Fishers of shell and gill still ply Bourne's waters and share the bounty with terns and cormorants. Ospreys arrive each spring to breed and fledge their young, before heading south in late summer. The plaintive cries of seagulls are ever-present. Conservationists hope and plan that they always will be.

The Bourne Conservation Trust maintains the upper Cape's version of Boston's Emerald Necklace. Conservation lands offer trails easily accessible for nearby residents that weave through and between villages, from wooded ravines to windy shores. In minutes, walkers can leave dense settlements and busy highways a world away by strolling through the trees.

The BCT has been fortunate, and has planned well, to acquire lands where trees like American beech, hickory, white oak and white pine—rare in some of the Cape's second growth forests—have matured to impressive girths and lofty heights.

Philanthropy established the Bourne Conservation Trust. Generosity and dedication keep it going, and support is always welcome. Meanwhile, you can visit unspoiled places, dear hearts by your side, watch herons forage backlit by fire in the sky, and see a fox trot jauntily in search of dinner, thanks to ongoing attention to the natural nooks and outlooks conserved by the Trust.

The BCT is a private nonprofit land trust with a primary objective of acquiring land and leaving it in its natural state to: protect habitats, provide groundwater recharge, preserve rural ambiance and make it available for recreational and educational purposes. The BCT owns and maintains more than 200 acres of open space. Miles of walking trails thread their way through these protected woods and waterfront areas. The BCT is always looking for volunteers and donors to help achieve its mission and both maintain and enhance its properties. Learn more at www.bourneconservationtrust.org.

GIVE to the BCT!

We Need Your Financial Support.

Cash donations large and small help maintain the BCT's 501(c)(3) status and grow our general funds for present needs and our endowment funds for future needs. Monies in the general fund are used to purchase and maintain properties, as needed. Much as we rely on volunteers, circumstances do arise where we need to hire professional help, for example legal services or professional tree services. These costs, which are also paid out of the general fund, have become significant.

Currently, the BCT has very little debt. This gives us the opportunity to rebuild our cash reserves so that we have funds on hand to meet our obligations. It also enhances our chances to act quickly as new properties become available.

Our fundraising efforts are based on a soft-sell approach, with this newsletter the most important tool. In the newsletter, we list recent donors as a way of saying thank you for your support, and as a way of encouraging others to consider a donation. Donations of any dollar amount are important, because the number of donors shows foundations and other large donors the degree of local support and helps us to retain our status as an IRS 501(c)(3) organization. This status allows your donation to be tax deductible. In other words, please contribute what you can, as often as you can.

Other Ways of Giving

In addition to cash donations, there are many ways of giving to the BCT. Here are a few other ways you can support the Trust:

- Name the BCT in your will or as beneficiary of a life insurance policy
- Give appreciated securities
- Give the gift of real estate (or sell it to the BCT for less than its fair market value; the difference is considered a charitable gift). Note: A gift of land is a win-win for donors, the BCT and residents of Bourne. Such gifts provide tax advantages and help preserve the scenic character of our area, maintain air quality and provide a natural habitat for local wildlife.
- Offer a matching gift to support our efforts to purchase property. People respond generously when they know their gift will be doubled.

Log on to www.bourneconservationtrust.org for more information.

It Works

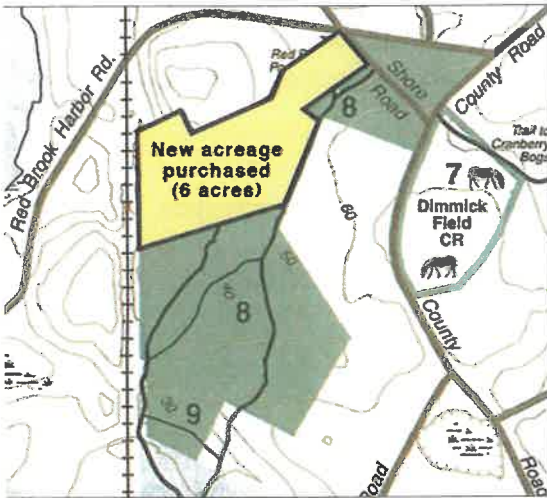

The BCT approach to fundraising works because our preserved woodlands, shore frontages, marshes and walking trails speak for themselves, and because we are surrounded and supported by people who understand the value and importance of open space, know what our Town might be like without it, and understand that it is everyone's responsibility to protect and maintain it.

The Bourne Conservation Trust is tax exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Within IRS guidelines, contributions and gifts may be tax deductible from your taxable income. The Trust's tax identification number (TIN) is 04-2767827. Please consult your tax advisor for more information.

NEWS and NOTES

Cataumet Greenway Gets Greener

Thanks to your support and generosity, six acres of land that abut the DeNormandie Woods have been purchased and fully paid for by the BCT. This land greatly enhances the Cataumet Greenway and expands the BCT's walking trails and habitat for local wildlife. The purchase and sale agreement was signed last April. Thanks to a matching gift and your donations toward the purchase of this important piece of property, the BCT was able to raise the funds necessary to cover the full cost without borrowing any money. The purchase is now complete and the land is protected today and for generations to come. This is really good news for the BCT and for all of you who enjoy our trails and the more than 200 acres of open space in our town that has been purchased by or donated to the BCT.

Cataumet Gardens Update

Work is well underway at Cataumet Gardens, located on Route 28A, on the site of the former Cataumet Garden Center. The developer is Chappy LLC, a local company headquartered in North Falmouth. This new complex, which abuts the 8.5 acres of woodlands preserved by the BCT as a nature sanctuary, will be an upscale, mixed-use complex with retail locations, high-tech office space and luxury one-bedroom apartments in three buildings. A fourth building will house apartments and parking garages. Building one is nearing completion, with some retail tenants expected to open for business around April 1. Ground-breaking for buildings two and three has begun and there is a waiting list for the apartments. The project should be completed later this year. For more information, log on to www.cataumetgardens.com.

Walk the Trails

If you are looking for a family activity, a peaceful haven away from our busy world, or want to walk the recommended 10,000 steps a day, why not try the BCT trails. There are many to choose from and each is special in its own way. Some go through woods, others around ponds or along the shore. Often-times, it will be just you and the birds, the breezes and perhaps a fox, lots of squirrels or an army of fiddler crabs. In the spring and summer months there are wildflowers to enjoy. In the winter you may track your footsteps over a light snow cover. You could start with the Cataumet Greenway, made up of these trails:

- Broyer Conservation Area
- Cataumet Depot
- DeNormandie Woods
- Dimmick Waterfront
- John E. Handy Conservation Area
- Joyce Path
- Lawrence Island
- Robinson Conservation Area

You may also want to stroll through the Bourne Sisters Woodland, Little Bay, Red Brook Conservation Area and the Nickerson Conservation Area (by Aptucket).

Complete and detailed BCT trail maps will be available in the spring at Ballentine's Boat Shop, Parker's Boat Yard, Kingman Marine, Bourne Public Library and Bourne Town Hall. You can print one at:

www.bourneconservationtrust.org.

Dimmick Family Christmas Tree Sale

Over the years the Dimmick family has created a wonderful holiday tradition well suited to their expansive property on County Road. First, they buy, plant, nurture and prune Christmas trees. Then each year, as the trees mature, families can choose among the trees available for that year, with all proceeds donated to the BCT. Some years, families have had a chance to take a tractor ride to choose their tree, watch it being cut and then brought back to their car on a trailer. A cup of hot cider in the Dimmick barn can be an added treat. The BCT sends a big thanks to the Dimmick family for their ongoing support.

Cape Cod Road Runners “Winter Fun Run”

The 33rd and 34th runnings of the annual Winter Fun Run, sponsored by Cape Cod Road Runners, were held in January, 2014 and 2015. The course is 4.9 miles, on paved roads and a somewhat hilly terrain. The race starts and ends at the Weary Travelers Club in Monument Beach. The race always starts at 10:30 am...rain, snow or shine. There are awards for all ages, from juniors under age 20 to super seniors age 70 and older. Typically, 200 to 220 people race to the finish line with times that range from just over 26 minutes to 90 minutes. The reward for participating: clam fritters, seafood chowder, a cold “drink” plus a pair of the popular cotton running gloves. There is also a raffle. All proceeds from the run are donated to the BCT to help in its efforts to purchase land for conservation. The BCT sends big thanks to the Weary Travelers Club and Cape Cod Road Runners for their ongoing support. Note: For a complete list of winners and times for last year and this, go to www.capecodroadrunners.com. Then mark your calendar for next winter’s race: January 3, 2016.

Village Yard Sale

One man’s “I don’t want, need or have a place for this” is another man’s “this is just what I’ve been looking for and the price is right.” That’s why we all attend yard sales, right? Who doesn’t love the opportunity to look for an unexpected treasure and bargain to boot? It’s a great way for some to clean out and others perhaps to clean up. And it’s a great way to recycle. Last summer there was a big yard sale in Cataumet, hosted by Jane Downing and Howard Crow, and Grace Rowe and Hal DeWaltoff. All of the proceeds from this yard sale, $2,100, were donated to the BCT. That’s a win win for everyone involved. The BCT sends a big thanks to these families for their ongoing support.

Easter Egg Hunt at Spring Hill Farm

Each year, the Cataumet Civic Associates, Inc., in partnership with the BCT, hosts its annual Easter Egg Hunt at the BCT’s Spring Hill Farm on County Rd. in Cataumet. The Easter Bunny is there, along with lots of children eager to search for candy and one of three special “golden” eggs hidden throughout the fields. The kids can then walk their parents around the farm and visit with the horses. It is fun, festive and a favorite event at this wonderful farm.

Help Wanted!

The Trust is always looking for help. You may volunteer at Spring Hill Farm to help maintain the grounds and care for the animals. You might prefer to support the Trail Meisters out on the trails. There are also needs for help at the office, monitoring conservation restrictions, reviewing possible land donations or purchases, maintaining Trust records and communicating with donors and potential donors through a variety of media. Involving new people on BCT sites and behind the scenes helps ensure that the administration of the Trust and the stewardship of the land will endure and prosper for generations. Please pitch in any way you can. If you are interested in volunteering, contact the BCT at 508-563-2884 or bct.trails@gmail.com. The mailing address is PO Box 203, Cataumet, MA 02534.

Stay in Touch

We urge readers to visit our website: bourneconservationtrust.org, to learn more about our history, mission and accomplishments and to access printable trail maps. There are also tips on many of the ways you can contribute to the BCT.

Also, "like" us on Facebook. The BCT is fortunate to have numerous gifted photographers who contribute pictures of the goings-on in Trust properties, particularly charming pictures of local wildlife that wander among our fields and along our trails. The quiet happenings on our conserved parcels give us daily reminders of the wonders of nature ...and a needed break from the hectic pace of everyday life.

Got Your BCT Hat?

BCT hats in a rustic forest green with our initials on the front are available for purchase for $15. They can also be earned by volunteering.

Contact the BCT at 508-563-2884 or bct.trails@gmail.com for details.

In Memory of Peter...

the BCT's Nubian goat, who passed away last December at the age of 14. Peter loved his hay, pellets and tasty scraps from the Daily Brew... plus Christmas trees. He also loved a good head scratch when visited by his many care takers at the farm. Kids loved visiting Peter during the Easter Egg Hunt and he loved their visits. He will be greatly missed by all.

(Sometime this spring, the BCT hopes to have two new goats living on the Farm...but that will probably not be in time for this year's Easter Egg Hunt.)

Support the BCT—Create Your Own Event!

As noted, there are many ways to help support the BCT. Have a yard sale! Sell Christmas trees or summer plantings! Invite friends for a special BCT dinner! Run a bake sale! Open a lemonade stand! Offer a car wash! Sponsor a golf or tennis tournament! Run in the Winter Fun Run! Make a donation in someone's (or a pet's) memory, in someone's honor, or as a gift to the person who "has everything." The opportunities are endless and available to people of all ages. Why not think about a unique way you could help support the BCT?

Do you ever notice, when you walk the BCT trails, that they are remarkably well-maintained and well-signed? This does not happen by chance. It is a true team effort. Whether it was cleaning up after Hurricane Sandy, last winter's late heavy snowfall, or a fall nor'easter, a small group of volunteers, we call them Trail Meisters, work hard to make your walking experience on the BCT trails a good one most every day of the year. The Trail Meisters are always available, in both good weather and bad.

You can think of them as the BCT Rapid Response Team. When you call to report a tree or limb across a trail, a missing or damaged sign, or anything that needs attention, they are ready to act. Each team member has an assigned trail to watch over. For big jobs or major damage, they work together. Here is a list of the Trail Meisters and their respective BCT trails:

| Joe Hurley | Nickerson (Aptucxet) trails |

Welcome! The BCT welcomes its newest Trail Meisters, Joe Hurley and Rick Rheinhardt.

Want to Join the BCT Rapid Response Team?

Please email the BCT (bct.trails@gmail.com) or call 508-563-2884.

Want to Support the Team?

Please feel free to do a little informal side trimming on your favorite trail. Hand clippers, or better yet, loppers can do the job nicely. Just throw your cuttings off to the side of the trail. Also, please pick up any trash and small branches you see along the way. If you find a tree or major branch across the trail, report it to the BCT.

Want to Walk? Enjoy your walks on the well maintained trails courtesy of the BCT Trail Meisters' Rapid Response Team!

1 Hello my name is Minska and I love to walk the BCT trails. My favorite spots are the several kettle ponds because I love the MUD. I am a white dog and that black mud looks great on my paws and legs. Thank you for keeping the trails so easy to walk and filled with grand sniffing spots. In my picture I am fresh out of a kettle pond.

2 My name is Dodger and I chase frogs. Since I moved here from Tennessee, I have spent most of my walks nose down in the weeds searching for the green little monsters. While I have YET to catch one, I am getting closer every day! I love the BCT because they take care of all the puppy friendly trails around my favorite hunting grounds. These paths make a great way to warm up before I get to the pond, creeks, and bogs around Cataumet. You would be surprised how much work frog hunting can be and I get a little sore if I don't stretch! My dad likes the longer trails. He says it gives me a chance to dry off before I get in the car. I don't know why he complains. I think the smell of pond water and puppy fur stinks great!

3 My name is Cooper and my favorite things to do on the trails are to wander from smell to smell (leaving my mark along the way of course) and to look for squirrels to chase up a tree. I wish my owner would let me spend more time sniffing but she wants to keep moving. Often we meet friends along the way and I get lots of pats and maybe a treat or two.

4 Sofie and Molly said "how lucky we are to have the freedom and fun to run, swim, play and visit with other doggies (maybe some humans too). We try to keep a look-out for those who choose to not pick-up after their pets and take the appropriate action!"

Hey dog walkers...

Don't forget:

Keep your dog under control (on leash) when near other people, and off private property!

Scoop the poop and take it with you—so vital to keeping our pathways and water clean!

Named Memorials

Memorial donations received after December 31, 2014, will be listed in the annual report in early 2016. Upon the death of a loved one, many families request memorial donations to charitable organizations in lieu of flowers. When the BCT is specifically named to receive memorial donations, it is our practice to ask the family to write a short tribute to be included in our newsletter.

of Cataumet, MA and Richmond, VA, who died this past fall, on September 11. Throughout his life John spent a good part of every summer in Cataumet at the house his grandfather, Robert Winsor, built in the late 1890s. The house, having been sold in the 1940s, was bought back by John in the mid 1960s. For the rest of his life, spending time in Cataumet, being with his family and friends, and sailing the waters he knew so well in his Herreshoff 12, were the joys of his life. John will be buried next to his wife Dorothy at the Cataumet Cemetery in May.

THERESE HIGDON JOYCE

a native of the West Texas town of El Paso, who, along with her husband the late Kilmer Joseph Joyce, relocated to Depot Road Cataumet in 1955, where they raised six children. Therese died on November 13, 2014, at the age of 93.

Although Therese never did get accustomed to New England winters, she thoroughly enjoyed the wide expanse of green forests, shore side vistas and open space protected by the BCT.

Both Therese and Kilmer were early benefactors of the Bourne Conservation Trust, having in the 1980's donated land (now known as the Joyce Path) adjacent to the Old Penn Central Railroad. In 1970, prior to the formation of the BCT, Therese supported her husband as he obtained signatures on a petition requesting the Town of Bourne to designate a 12-acre parcel of land on Depot Road as conservation land, to be called the Broyer Conservation Land in memory and honor of Clifton Lee Broyer, killed in action in Vietnam.

Therese was active in the Cataumet community for almost fifty years, loved by her family and neighbors, and remembered for her kindness, straightforwardness and humor. She will be missed.
